

Below is presented for assistance in determining where (approximately) a slip is located in the marina - it is NOT a true representation of the length of the docks or width of the slips. Black lines between slips are indications of where finger piers are located. Finger piers are approximately the length stated for the dock. Gangplank Marina has floating docks. If needed, please call for information on depth to a truss and width of a slip.

WATERFRONT PROMENADE

